It shall come into force after acceptance by the IIPSC provided that such funds are available. The expenditure budgeted may not exceed more than 80% of the annual funds raised in the Organization coffins. Should the IIPSC not have had the possibility of approving the budget, the Executive Committee shall take all necessary steps according to the general outlines of the preceding budget.

RELATIONS WITH OTHER ORGANIZATIONS

Article 41

The Organization shall establish relations and collaborate with other "organizations", intergovernmental or nongovernmental international organizations at any time it deems fit, having regard to the aims and purpose and activities of the Organization provided in Article 2 , "The Purpose is and activities of the Organization".

The general provisions concerning the relations with international, intergovernmental or nongovernmental organizations will only be valid after their recommendation by the International Information Policy and Security Council with final approval from the President. The President has the powers to authorize and classify such relation without the recommendation of the IIPSC only if it's considered of high importance and the INFOSEC is applied.

The Organization, by order of the President may at any time, in connection with all matters in which it is competent, take the advice of nongovernmental international, governmental national or non-governmental national organizations.

With the approval of the IIPSC and or the President in special circumstances, the Executive Committee or, in urgent cases, the Secretary General may accept duties within the scope of its activities and competence either from other international institutions or organizations or in application of international conventions.

APPLICATION, MODIFICATION, INTERPRETATION OF THE STATUTE AND INTERNAL REGULATIONS

Article 42

The present statute may be amended on the proposal of either any Member or the Executive Committee with approval of the following:

- the President of the Organization,
- all the Vice-Presidents of the Organization,
- the General Secretariat of the Organization,
- and 90% votes in favor of such change by all Members of the IIPSC

Article 43

The French, English and Dutch texts of this Constitution shall be regarded as authoritative.

Article 44

Internal Regulations which regulate the functioning of the Organization further and more detailed will be drawn up by the Executive Committee for the approval of the IIPSC, acting under the ordinary conditions of majority, and of the Office of the President.

Changes to the Internal Regulations may be made by the IIPSC, acting under the ordinary conditions of majority, and approved by the Office of the President.

REPRESENTATION

Article 45

The Organization is validly represented towards third parties, before the courts and in official deeds, including those for which the intervention of a civil servant or a notary is required, by the Secretary General and a member of the Executive Committee, acting jointly, in accordance with the instructions of the Executive Committee, which will not have to justify their power against third parties.
